

Career days at Technical University of Sofia

On October 19, 2022, the forum is held for the 17th year in a row at TU - Sofia. The exhibition aroused interest among employers - a record number of companies and organizations participated in this year's edition - 120. The students of TU - Sofia took advantage of the opportunity to meet their future employers to find suitable job positions and get to know the career programs offered.
